Degree programme

In accordance with Section 10 (2) of the General Part of the Examination Regulations (AT PO), failed module examinations can be resat twice. In the course of your degree programme, you have the possibility to apply in writing to resit an examination in one module, which will be held as an oral examination. You must apply for another attempt at the examination within one month of the official notification of grades following the last possibility to resit the module examination. The attempt must be taken within twelve months, otherwise the module examination will be assessed as a definitive fail, unless you are not to blame for non-compliance.

You may suggest when the examination should take place. Although the examiners may accept your suggestion, they are ultimately responsible for setting the examination date. You will be notified of the examination date in writing by post or email.

I hereby apply for another attempt at an examination for the following module:

Name of module Examination number

If possible, the oral examination should take place within the following period:

Place, date
