

Module: SL6 Ethics and Extracurricular Courses
Exam: SL6 Ethics and Extracurricular Courses	LV.-No.:	ECTS-Points: 5 CP
Recommended Semester: 3rd Semester – Ethics 1st – 5th Semester – Extracurricular Course	Module: Compulsory subject/ elective subject	Language: German/ English
Responsible lecturer: Dr. Michel-Fabian / Welsch	Cycle: Ethics – Winter Term Extracurricular Courses – Winter and Summer Term	Registration information:
Lecturer in charge: Dr. Michel Fabian (Ethics); Welsch (coordination EC); all Lecturers of the department (EC)
Learning outcomes	Ethics in Ecotrophology (Part I): The aim is to promote the competence of students to be able to deal with ethical questions reflected in their studies and professional life. Students are able <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - to perceive and name ethical conflict situations, - to identify and apply the evaluation system of such conflicts, especially those in professional life, - to recognize scope for action in ethical conflicts, - to name, explain and transfer important ethical theories and concepts to professional everyday situations, - to make ethical judgments reasonably. Extracurricular Courses (Part II) The learning objectives can vary greatly depending on the choice of events / topics offered in the extracurricular courses: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Students recognize essential contents and connections of Ecotrophology in study and occupation on the basis of most different topics and event forms and can assign these to the professional fields - Students recognize the requirements of ecotrophological occupational fields and their diversity (orientation in occupational field) - Students acquire (and can apply) interdisciplinary skills that are necessary for a successful academic and professional life (interdisciplinary competences, personal competences, soft skills) - Students can assess themselves better - Students have knowledge of more detailed topics of ecotrophological practice - Students recognize the interfaces to other work areas
Form of exam	Module exam: See current examination date list and examination form list In the subject „Ethics“ has to be done a course assessment. Proof of performance is to be provided in the extracurricular courses.

Form of teaching	Ethics: Lecture Extracurricular Courses: Seminar/ Training/ Seminaric Lecture/ Practical Training
Course contents	Ethics in Ecotrophology (Part I): a) Fundamentals of applied Ethics in Ecotrophology: General ethical principles such as Responsibility, Happiness, Good Life, Justice, Autonomy, Non-harm and Benefit, Human Rights, Participation. Application-related basics such as Professional ethics, environmental ethics, animal ethics, sustainability ethics, ethics of nutrition b) Current Problems and Issues of Ethics in Ecotrophology: Findings from the basic events are related to selected current issues and discussed. c) Ethics in the specialization areas: The students apply the ethical knowledge to their respective specializations. Extracurricular Courses (Part II): Depending on the choice of events / topics offered in the Extracurricular Courses, the contents can be very different: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Professional fields of Ecotrophology and emphasis of the study - Specialist ecotrophological content; current topics; media literacy - Professional and interdisciplinary requirements for Ecotrophologists in practice: application training, profiling, self-organization, communication - deepening of scientific methods (e.g., laboratory methods, project planning, scientific work) - Paths to self-employment - Topics from the field of Ecotrophology - Offers for intercultural competence
Workload	Presence (X SWS): Ethics: Extracurricular Courses: Preparation and Follow-up: Ethics: Extracurricular Courses: Sum:	30 h 60 h 60 h 10 h 150 h
Requirements	None
Literature	Literature recommendations are given in the courses	